1) Chairman's Report

Tea Towels

Julie Sen ordered 300 tea towels and the PTFA are selling them for £4.00 each, if all get sold then a profit of £780 will be made. 125 have been sold so far at the autumn fair and we will sell them at the School Disco and X-Mas Concerts. Becky Gubbins has a stall at the Settlebeck x-mas fair and will sell them there also.

No more for at least 5 years.

Bags for School

Lots of items in lost property so Linda Allen thought it would be good to do 'Bags for School' on the 9th, 10th, 11th December. Each pupil will receive a bag for any unwanted clothes and bedding. The PTFA will get 50p per kilo

Pampered Chef

Linda Livsey has ordered wine on sale of return, PTFA members to provide snacks on the night, tea and coffee and fruit juice will also be on sale. Only 3 tickets sold to date, so Becky Gubbins has kindly agreed to try and sell some tickets this week. Linda Allen to design.

What to spend the money on?

We discussed ideas on what Sedbergh Primary needs and the following suggestions were put forward – musical instruments, more benches in the yard, i-pads, kitchen island for younger children, raised beds, outside glass room, a yurt. It was decided that a separate meeting is needed to discuss further and the possibility of a suggestion box before- hand.

School Disco

All booked for the 8th November - selling the usual + tea towels.

X-mas concerts

DVD's to be made as last year and the children will be asked to design the front covers. B. Hartley will be asked to be the judge. Linda Livsey to organize the competition in school

X-mas night out

Mini bus booked –(Braithwaites) 19 seater for £100 leaving the Dalesman at 7.30 and collect in K. Lonsdale at 11.30. All welcome

Web site

Michelle Hartley kindly offered to design a web site for the PTFA, which will cost approx. £65 per year. All present agreed this was a fantastic idea and all events, minutes of meetings, pictures, can be put on the website. Thank you Michelle,
